

Marshall Tauber

Marshall Tauber received his Bachelor's Degree in Communication Arts & Science from Michigan State University in 1976, and his J.D. from Detroit College of Law in 1981. After stints with a few small Detroit area law firms and contractual work with the State Appellate Defender Office, Marshall opened his own law office in Oakland County in 1983. Initially concentrating on criminal defense and general civil litigation, Marshall's primary practice has gradually gravitated into criminal defense at the trial level. In 1992 Marshall was elected to the Board of Directors of CDAM and served on CDAM's Executive Board beginning in 1995. From 2003, the year that this Trial College was commenced, through 2005, Marshall served as President of CDAM. He also remains an active member of CDAM's Education Committee, (for 12 years) and, has been a very proud member of the Criminal Defense Trial College faculty since 2008. Additionally, he served as the 1995-96 Chair of the Criminal Law Committee of the Oakland County Bar Association and as an active member of that association's Public Advisory Committee on Judicial Candidates from 1998 through 2002. Marshall continues to try criminal cases throughout Southeast Michigan and other locations throughout the state. Outside of work, Marshall has been coaching basketball and softball for Team Huron Valley Special Olympics since 2010.
