

Lisa Kirsch Satawa is a criminal and family law attorney specializing in consulting and defending allegations of child sexual assault and child abuse. Her multistate practice includes trials, consultation, pre-charge investigation, educational advocacy, training and appeals. Ms. Kirsch Satawa has a unique multidisciplinary practice where she incorporates specialized knowledge of linguistics, forensic interviewing, childhood development, psychology and the law. Lisa is also faculty for CDAM's Trial College and a frequent presenter at CDAM conferences and other law-related organizations throughout the country.

In 2020, Jim and Lisa Kirsch-Sawata were awarded CDAM's prestigious Right to Counsel award for the creation of A is for Attorney.